The following architectural floor plans were drawn by Sascha Kurz (architectural assistant) between 1996 and 2003.

The drawings were made in accordance with both the interior sets constructed by Lorimar and the real exteriors of the filming locations, i.e. they are not original architectural plans of the respective real-life buildings, but drawings combining the sets and the exterior shots.

The furnishing added to the floor plans in accordance with the set design.

Any information is subject to change without notice. Our terms & conditions are applicable to any order.
